

volunteer centre

Ionad d'Obair Dheonach Corcaigh

CORK

Cork Volunteer Centre Equality Statement

Cork Volunteer Centre Equality Statement Cork Volunteer Centre will respect at all times the dignity and equality of all persons and will endeavour to always be an inclusive, welcoming organisation which embraces diversity.

Cork Volunteer Centre will treat all volunteers and representatives from volunteer involving organisations equally, regardless of gender, marital status, family status, sexual orientation, religion, age, disability, race, or membership of the Traveller community. Cork Volunteer Centre provides equal opportunities and are committed to the principle of equality.

We do this by complying with equality legislation, and by promoting an environment where racism, sexism and all other forms of discrimination are unacceptable. We will not condone any discriminatory act or attitude in the conduct of our business with the public, our employees, or volunteers; and acts of unlawful harassment or discrimination are disciplinary offences.

Cork Volunteer Centre will have developed policies, programmes, practices and traditions that facilitate volunteers free, safe and full participation in all our services.